1. Purpose

Glens Removals & Storage is committed to the lawful, transparent, and secure handling of personal data. This Policy applies to all employees, customers, suppliers, agents, and partners who provide or access personal data in connection with the Company's operations. It governs all data processing activities — digital and paper — in Zimbabwe and internationally.

It ensures that all personal and sensitive information is handled lawfully, securely, and transparently.

2. Scope

Applies to:

- Employees and management
- Customers and prospective clients
- Suppliers, agents, and partners
- Any third-party processing data on behalf of the company

Covers:

- Digital systems (email, cloud, CRM, AI tools)
- Physical records
- Cross-border data transfers

3. PRIVACY PRINCIPLES

3.1 Management

Glens Removals & Storage ensures effective data protection through:

- Compliance with all applicable data protection laws and FAIM requirements
- Defined internal procedures and controls governing data processing

GLENS REMOVALS & STORAGE

- Collection and processing limited to operational and legal requirements
- Ensuring all employees and third parties are contractually bound to data protection obligations
- Secure processing via both digital and paper-based systems
- Routine operational processes (e.g., shipment processing, client onboarding, documentation handling) conducted under controlled data protection measures
- Confidentiality safeguards applied to all data transfers and processing activities
- Continuous monitoring of regulatory updates and implementation of required changes

3.2 Notice

We provide clear and transparent notice regarding:

- What personal data is collected
- Why it is collected
- How it is used, stored, and shared

Key commitments:

- Data is processed only for service-related purposes
- Sensitive data is processed only when necessary and legally justified
- Privacy notices are included in quotations, email signatures, contracts, and digital platforms
- Data is not processed without appropriate safeguards

3.3 Choice and Consent

We ensure:

- Explicit consent is obtained where required
- Individuals are given clear options to accept or decline data processing
- Consent is recorded and traceable
- Individuals can:
 - Withdraw consent
 - Object to processing
 - Opt out of communications
